"Do young people today make good use of their free time? When I saw this question I immediately started to ~~etc~~ analyze everything I ~~was~~ know about teenagers and free time activities. So let me express my opinion.

Despite the fact that I am 19 I still can answer this question because I really experienced at this topic. Recently I saw a post about spare time. The creator asked his subscribers about their hobbies after school / work activities. To my surprise about 40% of all responders said that they don't have any hobby and spend their spare time ~~at~~ online. And I think that's a big problem. Just imagine their future. Or you can? Me too! Most of this people don't like school. It's really hard to predict their future situation. In this way it's impossible to find yourself ~~in~~ your attitude. Let me give you some advices ~~according~~ according to my own experience.

First of all, become more responsible. There is only one person who can help you, and that is you. Also don't forget to ~~find~~ find a hobby which is really close to you. Try to be more active, become hardworking. Don't force yourself, but make ~~you~~ sure to understand the importance of spending ~~the~~ time on something beneficial. ~~And~~ And don't ignore your friends too. It's great to hang out somewhere in open space with your friends, not in online. ~~Socializing~~ Socializing is one of the most important part of ~~becoming~~ becoming a mature person I understand it's not a piece of cake to do all these things. but I suggest you to do at least something. wasting your free time online is bad!

Think more about your futur life. Do some effort now, and it will be much easier later. I hope everything is clear and now it's your turn to make first steps!

She locked the door and went to her car. Thoughts like noisy bees, now were buzzing in her head. Her breath was unstable, frequent. She knew that in her condition, when she was under emotions, she shouldn't have driven a car. But she couldn't help it. It was the only way to escape. To survive in that mess of feelings.

She sat in the car and closed the door. Silence. Just for a moment. And then she pushed the pedal, gas pedal. She didn't know where she was going. And it was necessary. The fact that she was driving for no purpose calmed her already. Like always.

Watching the houses and people crossed by, she thought about that argument she had with her mother. She had ~~been~~ been pissed off - not by her mother's words, but by the fact that the woman, who raised her, gave her love, care and everything she needed, refused to risk, take a chance in her life against cancer.

Rose was scared to lose her. She didn't understand why her mother just gave up, but she knew that in the end of the day she would have to respect her mother's choice.

As the songs were playing in the car, Rose's emotions slowly faded away. And there was nothing but regret and sadness. She remembered days of her childhood that she spent in her parents' house with blue floors. There always was her mother, who cherished her and protected her from everything. A lonely tear ~~dropped against~~ ~~on her cheek by the thought that now there couldn't protect~~

And Rose wouldn't do the same for her mother now. She ~~was~~ ~~in pain~~ but suddenly she realized a simple, ~~the~~ truth.

She understood that she had stopped her car ~~some minutes ago~~ after some minutes. She Rose lifted her gaze up, and saw that house with blue doors. ~~And she~~ She didn't know she was going there. And ~~she~~ ^{Rose} realized realized a simple truth.

Be with her mother as long as it possible. Make memories, where she always will be.

Do young people today make good use of their free time? That's an interesting question.

There's no doubt that everybody has a free time daily, weekly or monthly, but we must use this time to develop ourselves and do not waste it in vain. Some people think that it is important to use leisure time for activities that develop the mind, such as reading and doing different puzzles. Others feel that it is important to give one's mind a rest in leisure time. Relaxing our mind has been a vital part of spending our free time for thousand of years. Most of the people find relaxing activities like reading books while others love to stay in the park just see a boring TV channel or discuss with friends in front of a cup of tea or coffee.

In my opinion young generation spends their free time with usefulness. Many people read books developing their minds do the sports. I consider that time activities that should eat our free time are the reading of a book and outdoor activities. Reading has always been one of the activities that fascinated the human mind and as long as we read books written in a language do not find difficult to understand, we should find reading a relaxing activity.

In conclusion, I want to say that spending your time with good use is great, but don't forget about relaxing. That is also important.

Do young people today make good use of their free time. It is a question that can have different answers. People are different and spend their time as they want. Today most of young people have gadgets, internet and spend free time there.

Some people use their free time just for fun, hanging in social media, having no purpose and just kill time.

But I think most of our young generation use their free time good. Internet gives big opportunities and if you use it right you can reach your goals.

They use their free time not only in internet, but also improving their skills, having rest - it also very important. I think so much for young people that reach success in it that young age shows that today young generation know how to use their free time right.

But I also worried about people who spent their time sitting at home and playing game or checking social media. In my opinion good time is not only improving skills and reaching goals. I think playing with friends offline, walking in the street, in the nature, having rest is also very important to spend in our life.

All peoples have different opinion, but I think that have good time is spend time to be happy.

The ~~topic~~ of Young People makes good use of their free time. The topic of whether the young generation spends their free time wisely has been the center of discussions for a long time. Young people has also investigated this issue and gladly shares his findings.

Many, especially the older generation, believe that the age of technology eliminated teachers' natural academic curiosity. That isn't true. The Internet is a wonderful place for everyone to learn new things, and teachers have been taking full advantage of it. Plenty of unique and useful courses are offered online, which helps young people in furthering their education. Moreover, young people are very keen on reading, and gladly engage in this form of exercise for the brain, which ~~is further~~ proves my point.

Young people are enthusiastic learners and allocate their free time to discover new knowledge and nothing makes me happier than the new era of technology helps them in many ways to discover as much as possible, and who is bold enough to say that learning isn't a good use of time?

1) What steps can ordinary people take to help to protect wildlife in your country?

Comments

The earth planet has been existing for a great number of years. It is not a secret that variety of animals and plants used to be completely different in the past. Nevertheless, some sorts of wildlife from that ancient time are still alive. However, other ones can be seen only in science books or Internet resources. You have probably heard about giant-sized animal, such as dinosaurs, big spiders and other types those terrifying predators. So the issue is: is it actually worth to save our wildlife for the next generations? Let us start by considering some pros and cons.

First of all, I would say that according to the past we can always predict the future. If our scientists had more details about ancient wildlife, they would definitely figure out what kind of evolution can wait for us in future. Moreover, we could see new fruits, vegetables, flowers and even animals by reproducing them. Our world would evolve faster and be totally different.

From the other hand, how population would feel be getting used to these global changes and imagine how dangerous they can be! Obviously, I am just guessing about that, but it should be mentioned that climate is changing as well as our wildlife. Personally, I would ~~be glad~~ to save our current flora and fauna. What steps should we take to make this idea real?

The most important thing is a person's wish. If you do want to save our wildlife, then here you go. Firstly, our government should build more buildings to keep our plants and animal in safe. Secondly, we regular population need to be more attentive to global problems within our nature.

To draw the conclusion, I want you to know that Earth is not eternal, but we can make it last longer and protect the nature.

E. Do young people today make good use of their free time.

Comments

There are plenty of arguments in our society about how generation and their hobbies. Some people think that teenagers don't do anything except sitting at home and scrolling social networks. However, I agree with those who think that generation Z wants to study and invent more than even previous generations.

Firstly, I have at least three friends who have the aim to be the best version of themselves, and for getting it they attend different courses to and make projects. For instance one of my friends took part who lives in Russia, took part in olympiads for Russian language and won the second place. She is also a member of voluntary club so I can't consider her as the girl who wastes her time staying at home.

Secondly, I would like to ^{point} emphasize those teenagers, who fight for the ecology. I believe that if a teenager thinks about the future of the Earth, he shouldn't be considered as the part of "lost generation".

Some of young people drink alcohol, take drugs, do not want to study and think about others. I am sure that every generation has such people, who waste free time and don't even try to spend it on something useful.

Nonetheless, I am sure, that every generation has at least, a hundred people who want to invent, discover and explore. Thus, I think, that young people today make good use of their free time. They are wonderful: they win prizes, play musical instruments, learn how to draw, study for getting scholarship. They are different and spend their free times on different things. Sometimes we don't want to do anything, but we never give up and never take anything for granted.

Thus, I think, that young people today make good use of their free time.

Nowadays people believe that teenagers today spend all their free time at videogames and scrolling social networks. To be honest, it is not far from the truth, due to rapid developing of the internet technologies, teenagers actually spend a lot of their free time at social networks. But this problem isn't unfixable, in many cases parents are able to help their children to find hobbies and use all advantages of the Internet, but they should do it while their kids are young age.

So, the main question today is "Do young people today make good use of their free time?" and as I mentioned above, the major part of the many young teenagers time is taken by the Internet. Of course there are exceptions but we will talk about them later. Such as the Internet takes a lot of teenagers time, the major part of this article will describe the relationship between teenagers and the World Wide web.

I cannot say that the Internet is the worst way to spend time for children or teenagers. Moreover I could say that the Internet is one of the best ways to spend time for young people. In my personal seeing I put the Internet at the same level as books, because it is actually the huge source of useful information.

How useful the Internet for children and teenagers depends on the content they watch or read. For instance people could watch educational videos instead of scrolling social networks or work through the Internet instead of playing at online games. It is important for parents to teach their kids to use Internet for educational purposes not for only for entertainment.

To be honest, it is difficult to determine how many young people spend their free time useful and how many does not. But I can definitely say that young people spend a lot of time in Internet and their parents should teach them to use it in order to education while they are young.

An International Student website investigated significant question for our prodigy "Do young people spend their time on right purposes?" This question prompts people to think about their week schedule. I always struggle to change schedule. There are a bit of tips how to make your schedule more convenient:

To begin with, you should remember about constant self-development that will affect your future occupation. You should think about abilities that would help you in upcoming future. For instance, learning English language or other languages. And try to make schedule spending most of the time on these abilities.

The second undeniable tip is to add things that would help to fit your body. To be in shape is essential due to modernity, viruses and diseases which can break your immunity. Different vitamins, sport exercises, better-constructed nutrition plan affect your body and organism to be ready for threats.

The third tip is make or better sleeping schedule. The reasons why people spend their free time incorrectly is procrastinating and that's why we recommend you to sleep better because it would help to prevent depression and procrastinating people. Moreover, it will make vigorous and more energetic.

And the last tip which often people like to do is rest. The correct mode pace of resting schedule is known. So, you desire to work a large amount of month suffer from anxiety about your low work. These schedule will avoid desire to throw your hands up.

To sum up, schedule of the week affect your interest, efficiency, speed of doing the time events. It is really important to be in shape constantly and self-development during a whole life.

From my point of view young people today make good use of their free time in comparison with my grandparents or parents. I can say that I in my free time make productive and can do many things that can be exciting for me.

Firstly my parents spend all their free time in watching TV or checking their phones. What about me? In my free time I reading a book or meeting with my friends, playing with my cat, doing my home online or relaxing with out any gadget. Nowadays young people can learn many new information with out meeting with other peoples. I mean they can learn new points in internet. Despite the problems with self learning it can be good for their future professions or softskills that can be also helpful in future. In this days young people smarter than adults because adults don't understand self learning and prefer studying off line.

Secondly young people smarter in IT-science and it really help them in nowadays world. Namely this can be a key points in their success.

Thirdly young people have more cogent argument to study well and explore their softskills. In the past in my country haven't big list of professions that you can choose. My mother said that they could choose a teacher or doctor and nothing else. Nowday young people can choose in many professions and be a good worker. And at work can be helpful skills of working in the team. Teenagers also better work in team in contrast adults.

In conclusion I can say that I agree that today young people more make good use of their free time they take care of their future and do anything to be the A-class specialist in their sphere. They don't worry to do mistake to have a conversation in hard teams, ask a hand for friend, have hegemony in computer primarily and can do anything that they want and really not exciting at it. Unlike adult who works in boring works.

"Do young people today make good use of their free time?"

In the contemporary era, when advanced technology is developed, it is getting harder not to be distracted by unnecessary activities and not to waste our precious time. Nowadays, almost everyone from the age of three to older generations have their personal smartphones, which leads to certain downgrades and benefits. However, as studies have shown that help of the youngsters do not utilize their gadgets beneficially. It can be spending too much time on social medias, watching TV shows for hours or even sleeping.

To start with, whenever young people find some free time, they tend to scroll down through their pages on Instagram, TikTok, Facebook. The said activity can become addictive over time, which would be hard to get rid of. Also, in addition to that, by having too much screen time, your eyesight might get worsen, which leads to some more problems related to health. Instead of wasting your free time on checking your all social medias, you have alternative types of activities, which you could be doing. To list, reading a few pages of your favorite book, working out which helps you to stay energized during the day or have a walk with your friends. These suggestions that I have mentioned previously not only makes you happier, but also assists in becoming the best version of yourself.

To sum up, everything that has been stated so far, choose wisely how you spend your

E. "Do young people today make good use of their free time?"

Comments

With the rise of social media sites more and more people, especially young, spend their free time browsing through or posting on those social networks. But is it actually a good use of their time or is it being wasted? Well here's what I think, it heavily depends on the person. A lot of older folks say that social media is purely a waste of time and that young people should just go outside and play football or something, but that's just not true. People spend their time on social media because of their hobbies, their interests, something they enjoy, and if that something is them not doing anything productive, but not harming anyone, then they should be free to do so. You don't have to spend your free time doing something beneficial, it's your free time, not anyone else's. Social media is a great outlet for ~~the~~ creativity. So many talented artists, singers, musicians, writers even bloggers and vloggers would not be where they are without social media. Let's of course not forget about it's main purpose, socialising with others. When people in person aren't understanding or welcoming, you can make friend through internet, and sometimes that friendship lasts for years. But obviously be cautious, there are lots of toxic people and straight up criminals on social media. Let's step outside of the topic of social network, cause although heavily related, isn't the topic of this article. What young people today have to do outside of their homes? Well a lot of things actually. Amusement parks, concerts, cinema, and just hanging out with their loved ones, young people today spend ~~on~~ their free time on such a variety of things. ~~to~~ Yes they aren't always "good" in a traditional sense, but as I said before, it doesn't have to be. Sometimes you should just do something you enjoy, not caring about anyone else. Your free can be unproductive, as long as it's not harmful.

Do young people today make good use of their free time?

Comments

There is nothing priceless like time. Nobody knows how use it inappropriate way. So do young people spend their time in right way and can they manage to it.

First of all nowadays young people are more inspired and they have ambitions. This time exactly need confident steps and thinking outside of the box. So that young people try to fit in to the time, so commitments in time use all your youth brightly. For instance, one third of teenagers turn up sports, hobby and doing the char. There is a difference between young and old generations. We have more options here.

On the other hand, another half of young people still in kind of under stress state. For example, they can miss the lessons or go behind the schedule. Whereas another are trying their best. Happy for us it is at least free or four teenagers using their time in appropriate way. In inappropriate way.

As a consequence, I do believe that all of us will not waste the time because I strongly agree with the phrase: "Time is priceless". It is only matter of time when you see the fruit of your labour. Remember, time is an exact measure of the fortune.

D. Wildlife nowadays has an issue of not being protected enough. The world number of individuals declines that all people should take an action so what humans can do in order to keep wildlife safe?

There are many steps which all of us should follow. The first rule is that disasters should not be the catalysts for people to take an action, humans should better to take care of nature right now. For instance, heads of regions may organize gathering every weekend, so that everybody could help clean the territory or plant trees. Secondly, adults as well as children must be aware of problems which may cause wounded that loss cause harm to wildlife. For example, some of the endangered species may die out if people neglect them.

To sum up, there are some simple steps which could be followed by every human.

E. Nowadays young people have a lot of free time. And it's very good. Because they can also can do another things. They can use their time have they want, and it's can help them in future. But, all of them use their free time to useful things?

I think it depend on person. Every body is a different. They got a different personality, and habits. For example: we can have a high school children they're more adult, and they also can understand what they really want. And it's more easy to use their time to something really important or just good. Usually high school child been studying harder, because they graduate soon. That's make their free time more useful. Also they got a hobby. Important or not important depends on person. I can say about myself. I'm going to "galashan sorayiq" to work ~~how to work~~ study to how work a photographer. I'm learning how more good lighting, how to create a nice photos or videos. And I liked. I think it's very important to me. Firstly, secondly it's a good spending free time. Of course, sometime kids just waste their time very bad. Like smoking, drink alcohol or just for party. I think I have no rights to judge them. Because it's not my business. It's a preblem, which about I'm telling to you, sometimes young people do really important things like helping to environment, cleaning streets and working to help others.

In conclusion, I wanna say that everybody of us has a right to spend time how they want. But, if you do really good things, I won't no thank you, because you're doing great job.

topic: questions about the upcoming trip to NY for 12-12 you students.

Good day! I am writing this letter to get additional information regarding your winter tour around New York. I am sincerely interested in participating on your offer and for that reason I'm looking forward to get response on all my questions. I am an international student living in Kazakhstan. I don't have an apartment and any other place to stay in NY. I wanted to know if your organization will provide participants with rooms to stay. If so, could you please send me the pictures of the rooms? Hope to see you in which conditions rooms are. Also, I would like to know the a schedule of the trip including schedule of events and places that students will visit.

At the end, I'm interested in pricing information. Will there be any extra fees for international students? Does your organization provide students with materials, blankets and pillows? If not, how much will be additional fees to get them? If it is possible could you please provide all the information regarding the pricing?

Thank you for your time! Hope to get proper answers to my questions!

With all respect, Anson Merykkyt

Do young people today make good use of their free time?

I think yes or no. Today + the teenagers use a lot of apps like Instagram, TikTok, Facebook etc. These apps young people spend on their free time in this app. Yeah, it is interesting but some of them spend 24/7 in their smartphones and don't control their free time in social media. It has both good and bad. It spoils your free time. To internet we receive a lot of information that we don't use well. Young people use of their free time like this but have a good example: we studying in online platform. Some young people good use of their free time at first reading and know about anyone business on study course. By know people teenagers so smart they're have business of very interesting project. I think it is you spend free time get good use.
