IV writing

P. You borrowed your friend Sam's book for a history project.

For Sam.

Hello my dear Sam!

How are you? I am writing you because you remember that, i borrowed book for a history project. I very like it's book, and it was very interesting and amazing for my history project. In school I take very good mark. Now i know many information about history in 1900 years. Thank you very much. But i have a problem.

When I overslept, i don't have a time and run to school with book, show my history project. Happend the accident. I run between the two parts of lake and your book fall in water. I feel very upset about it and understand, that situation very annoyed and sad for us. But I know how to fix this problem. I can give you a few money for book, but asked me how costs or price, or i can find this book in good supermarket or in century market in our city.

I hope you will understand me! And we will meet in school and give for you a new book. Have a nice day! Thanks, Goodbye.

Victoriya.
