When I opened the classroom door, everyone stopped talking. What is the matter

I need start a bit early. Two weeks ago I was in adventure by car with my a little sister and grand father. In holidays. It was a bit boring because my a little sister really likes study, and told me that correct one that not, but my grand father is funny. He told a lot of jokes and histories for us. We stopped in the forest. They lost near the car but I went to check all place. I was walking alone and if be honest I was sad cause I couldn't believe that I spend all my holidays with my spoiled a little sister. Later, I saw a star in the sky I said "Wow! Please does that I will happy" but nothing - the first time then it fast started go to me. I was scared and jumped on the other hand. I came nearly when it was on the Earth and opened. I didn't want take it but my hand did it for itself. And then it could be faster ~~the~~ clock was in my hand. I was scared and tried to disconnect it of my hand, but I couldn't. I thought "If I turn on it" and click on the bottom on the clock, next in the clock I imagined unknown people or animals!. I clicked in this and started something strange. My body started had fire's stone on skin, and I was the alien, fire's alien. I was panic and running to all forest, but stopped and thought "wait, it"

Don't tell a hot". In the was twelve aliens which I can be. And I started be a superhero.

In conclusion when I went to school I scared that everyone would be afraid me but when I came in class all my classmates and teacher said "That's our hero!"
