Review.

The object that I use every day is my headphones. And I'm very happy that I bought them, because they changed my life.

I chose it, because I listen to music very often. While going to school, in a trip, transport or while doing my homework or a housework. They are very useful. For instance, when I wear them in public, I can listen to music or podcast. And I'm not going to hear the noise around me, because my headphones with ANC. Only me and my music in ears. That's my favourite advantage of it. that I really like.

Also I always watch movies or series, and it's much easier with my headphones. I can watch it without disturbing other people. The sound directly goes to my ear.

However, it also has disadvantage. Some people sleep in headphones and therefore their ears hurts.

In conclusion, I can say that I really recommend it. It's very useful and will be your best purchase.
