Dear Jake;

I am glad to know that you are thinking of signing up in a cultural exchange event. It is great opportunity to learn new things and get to know numerous countries of people.

As you have said I took part in a similar project last year. My school had organized cultural exchange decade for two weeks. It was assigned with lots of other schools all around Kazakhstan. Albeit this project gave me significant experience. At first it has not known by us that there would be host families. So we were surprised at whole. Nevertheless, i have got amazing host family who treated ^{me} as well as their own kid.

First three days were introduction days in which we all have participated in quiz with our hosts. At no circumstances might I expected that it would be such a cool idea to bring up multicultural bonds. The next five days we were spending time with our hosts. Personally, my host parents- Alex and Mary were incredible persons. They took me deep into polish culture and in fact our five-days-long holidays went unexpectedly fast.

Advice for you - don't worry about staying with hosts. School already have knew everything about each family. Account on that school authorities divide students into according families.

Meanwhile best of the days we prepared for our personal project based on our experience. Most of all students were indeed contented with their "cultural appointment".

Ultimately, it was outstanding and upheating decade. I hope you would be amused with my experience.

Your sincerely.

Mokhir.
