I have never expected the school trip to end like this...

Since last year our class had been planning to go out skirt of city and do picnic to spend more time together. Finally, last month we managed to make a gathering on nature, which was a few far away from ^{the} city. All of us decided to go there by taxi and we met each other by the ^{chosen} place in the afternoon.

On that day it was sunny and sky was clear with no clouds on, so we had good moods. During our trip we ~~we~~ had been playing games, cooking meals and reminising our last school years.

But there happened something that we couldnot expect. While playing volleyball one girl injured her leg. Even though there was ~~for~~ her parents, they couldnot do anything.

Then another my classmate who ~~was~~ is interested in biology tried to solve the situation, and it seemed like he ~~now~~ managed to help her.

But after overcoming one difficulty there appeared another two issue, ~~these~~ ^{which} made this day worse.

Firstly, people never can predict the weather, and ^{suddenly} it started to rain. It caused dirt everywhere, so, walking for that girl became harder.

Second problem demanded to ^{previous one} this, and it was that we could not go our homes, as taxi while raining and in such late time works rarely. After ~~an~~ half of hour we eventually managed to call taxi, and left our gathering.

~~I have~~ This day was interesting without counting those situations we had experienced today. Hope, our next meeting won't have any issues like this.
