In our life, in my opinion most useful skill a teenager can learn today is sport, it will be volleyball, basketball, football, swimming, boxing and others skills. Also for example art, play instruments, singing. But for me, my favorite and important skill is dancing. Dancing has every where. When you cooking food, you dance with music, when you cleaning room, you also dancing. This is cool!

Firstly, if you every day dancing, your body was a better, your health is great and you have fun mood. Secondly dancing helps feel unrealistic since, for instance you have sad mood, parents was a nervous, in school you have bad points. You go to studio and dancing, relaxing, your life was be a easier, and it has helped you. In last, dancing don't different skill, is very easy when you want it and love it. If you don't like to dance, so is big problem.

In conclusion for me most important skill is dancing. With music you can don't have a boring life. Dance and live!
